M28	Early Days  Building the Bridge  The Bridge Opens - 19 March 1932  Commemorative Postage Stamps <small>By November 1930, the Postmaster-General's Department had made the decision to issue stamps commemorating the opening of the bridge. The stamps were issued in three values: two pence (2d), for letter postage within Australia and to British Empire countries; three pence (3d), for airmails; domestic airmail postage or letter postage to countries outside the British Empire; and five shillings (5s), for use on parcels and telegrams. The five shilling value is one of Australia's least common stamps, affectionately referred to as "Five Bob Bridge".</small> <small>The stamps were issued on 14 March 1932, three days before the official opening. Temporary post offices operated from the pylons of the bridge for two weeks and all letters and souvenir telegrams sent from the bridge were postmarked with a special datestamp. However, none were made of the two pence stamp in 1932. While the telegrams were quickly destroyed and destroyed, a few still remain in private collections.</small> <small>Since the 1932 stamp issue, the Sydney Harbour Bridge has appeared on 12 Australian stamps.</small>     	Sydney Harbour Bridge – Minisheet set of 4 7 x $1.95 self-adhesive stamps Early Days            Building the Bridge            The Bridge Opens            Commemorative Postage Stamps	15 th Jun 2007	$15
